

Dadi's 10 Outstanding Qualities

- She lives in the complete awareness of the presence of God (or the Divine)
- She acts in partnership with God recognizing the /her sacred obligation to care, to share, and to inspire.
- She thinks deeply about spiritual truth and reminds everyone she touches of what is imperishable in human life and connection.
- She believes in the good of humanity. She serves passionately and tirelessly identifying with young and old across boundaries and barriers, without categorizing or labeling.
- She draws her strength from her faith in the self, in God, in destiny, and in the family of humanity.
- She understands who she is as a spiritual being, and translates this into her life and service, all the while respecting the beliefs of those she serves.
- She relates to others with regard for the life they are leading and the role they must play, accepting each one as they are in the present, while shining a light on their best possible future.
- She has the heart of a mother and the tender commitment of a spiritual traveler and friend.
- She cultivates strength through simple actions of benevolence and spiritual interactions of love, urging everyone to come together and act in unity and cooperation.
- She knows how to take risks using faith as her safety net. And she knows how to dare making the impossible possible.

Gayatri Naraine

Brahma Kumaris Representative to UN, New York